

A man with a beard is sitting at a wooden table in a cafe, working on a black laptop. He is wearing a light-colored polo shirt. On the table, there is a glass of water and a small vase with some greenery. In the background, there are other tables and chairs, and a person is visible behind the counter. The text 'Expand' is in the top left corner. The main text on the right says 'Superior Security comes from within. Protect your device and data with Lenovo's Match On Chip Fingerprint Reader. ThinkPad X1 Series'. In the bottom left corner, there is a logo for 'Intel evo' and 'Intel Evo™ vPro™ platform'.

Cannes Film Festival 2021: New documentary on JFK presents fresh evidence

A new documentary, JFK Revisited: Through the Looking Glass by Oliver Stone, shown at Cannes Film Festival 2021, throws fresh light on the assassination of former American president John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

By HT Entertainment Desk

UPDATED ON JUL 16, 2021 12:32 PM IST

John F Kennedy had been advised by his security staff against travelling in an open motorcar.

Oliver Stone's Cannes Film Festival title, JFK Revisited: Through the Looking Glass, comes decades after the the American president John Fitzgerald Kennedy was shot dead in Dallas, Texas, while he and wife Jacqueline were riding in an open motorcar. The president was a darling of the masses, and despite the grim warning of his security agencies not to travel in an open car, he dared and went ahead only to die in the arms of his wife.

Oliver packs lots of information into his work and in just two hours. A longer four-hour version is also available. And the director has many more pieces of puzzling information on offer that the world thinks it knows. But does not.

Speaking at a press conference after JFK was screened, Oliver quipped that the “conspiracy theory has now become conspiracy fact,” even as he compared Kennedy to the presidents who came after him. “None had his strength to carry through any worthy intentions they may have held prior to taking office.”

Many lived through their presidency in fear. “Barak Obama feared for his life. I think one of his biggest concerns when he was President was being assassinated, because he was the first Black President. Of course I don’t know this, it’s just an assumption, because of his behaviour, which was don’t offend anyone, be moderate...”

The motive for the Kennedy murder was change, and Kennedy was changing things. If he had succeeded, we would be in a wholly different place now." Oliver averred.
