Who was the captain of Sunrisers Hyderabad when they won their maiden IPL title?

Answer & Win

In a statement, he said "I'd like to thank the Festival de Cannes for including my film 'Horizon, an American Saga' in this year's selection. It's been 20 years since I've had the pleasure of being on the Croisette (Cannes' beach front where the Festival's main venue is located). I've been waiting for the right time to return and I'm proud to say that this time has come. 'Horizon, an American Saga' is a story that began 35 years ago, and I can't think of a better place than Cannes to reveal to the world the result of such a wonderful adventure. The French have always supported movies and believed deeply in filmmaking. Just as I believe deeply in my movie..."

Horizon, an American Saga has been described by the Festival as as a "monumental project about the cost, in terms of war and violence, of the construction and expansion of the United States of America. Costner has always aimed to paint a portrait of America: its origins, its flaws and its legends. As we know from Dances with Wolves, the Western has become his preferred genre for expressing his political commitment to democracy and the environment"

So far, the Festival has announced two films apart from the Costner work: George Miller's Furiosa: A Mad Max Saga and opening movie The Second Act, directed by Quentin Dupieux and starring Léa Seydoux and Vincent Lindon.

The full line of films will be announced on April 11 in Paris by the Festival chief, Thierry Fremaux.
